Research Recognition Award 2018 awarded by the Vice-Rectorate for Research of the Pontifical Catholic University of Peru to high quality academic publications

In November 2017, the ICSID published its "Public Comments to Amendment of ICSID's Rules and Regulations (2016-2018)", document which contains, in its first page, my proposal to modify the ICSID arbitration rules, incorporating the obligation of the parties (of a continuous nature) to disclose whether they have third-party funding, in order to avoid situations that may create conflicts of interest for the arbitrators.

In May 2018 my proposal contained in the "Public Comments to Amendment of ICSID's Rules and Regulations (2016-2018)", was highlighted by the doctrine, through the article by professor Hong-Ling Yu, entitled "Who is in? Who is out? How the UNCITRAL Transparency Rules Can Influence the Upcoming Amendments of the ICSID Arbitration Rules" (in Contemporary Asia Arbitration Journal, N° 1, Taiwan, 2018).

In August 2018, the ICSID publishes its "Proposals for Amendment of the ICSID Rules - Working Paper", which in Rule 21 adopts my proposal to incorporate the obligation of the parties to disclose whether they have third-party funding.

In August 2019, the ICSID publishes its "Proposals for Amendment of the ICSID Rules", which in Rule 14 adopts my proposal to incorporate the obligation of the parties to disclose whether they have third-party funding.

In February 2020, the ICSID publishes its "Proposals for Amendment of the ICSID Rules", which in Rule 14 adopts my proposal to incorporate the obligation of the parties to disclose whether they have third-party funding.

In March 2020, I have honored to be ranked in the Valuable Practice category of Leaders League Peru's Best Arbitrators 2020

In June 2020, the prestigious Delos Dispute Resolution has honored me by including the webinar "International Investment Arbitration in the Age of Coronavirus" in its List of Virtual Hearing Resources. Available at: <https://delosdr.org/index.php/2020/05/12/resources-on-virtual-hearings/>

In March 2021, I have honored to be ranked in the Valuable Practice category of Leaders League Peru's Best Arbitrators 2021

In March 2022, I have honored to be ranked in the Valuable Practice category of Leaders League Peru's Best Arbitrators 2022

The essence of my proposal to incorporate the obligation of the parties (of a continuous nature) to disclose whether they have third-party funding, in order to avoid situations that may create conflicts of interest for the arbitrators, has been included in the text of Rule 14 of the Amendments to the ICSID Arbitration Rules, approved on March 23, 2022.

Research Recognition Award 2021 awarded by the Vice-Rectorate for Research of the Pontifical Catholic University of Peru to high quality academic publications

Interviews

In my interview with Global Arbitration Review (GAR) on October 24, 2017, I discuss about a proposed new law could see exodus of institutions from Peru.

In my interview with Global Arbitration Review (GAR) on November 7, 2019, I discuss about the arbitrators jailed in Peru amidst the Odebrecht corruption scandal.

In my interview with Global Arbitration Review (GAR) on February 26, 2021, I discuss about a proposed new law could discourage the participation of foreign arbitrators in domestic and in law arbitrations.

In my interview with Global Arbitration Review (GAR) on May 7, 2021, I discuss about the fact that a Peruvian presidential frontrunner proposes to withdraw Peru from ICSID, and instead create the Dispute Resolution Center of the Union of South American Nations (UNASUR) or use the bilateral investment treaties (BITs) as arbitral institutions.

In my interview with Peruvian official gazette "El Peruano" on December 14, 2022, this talks about the fact that I am the first Peruvian to be a member of the list of arbitrators of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (TAS/CAS). They highlighted that having a Peruvian member is "a great option for national [Peruvian] and Latin American sports institutions to have access to a professional who speaks their language and has the same legal culture to resolve their disputes in this field."
